

Mrs. Goodale's Class Visits the Post Office

Mrs. Goodale's class visited the post office in January after learning about Community Helpers in class.

Dan the postman lead the class on a tour where they got to stamp their letters to be mailed.

The kids also peeked in the large mail bins to see how much mail arrives each day.

They took home a pencil, sticker, and post office coloring book.